Navigation Data

Certain personal data are collected by the computer systems and software procedures used during normal operation of the website www.enjoyevents.it. The transmission of these data is implicit in the Internet communication protocols. This information is not to collected to associate it with identified parties. However, the user’s identity could emerge through processing and association with data held by the Controller and third parties. The following fall into this category: IP addresses or domain names of computers accessed by the website users, the URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) of requested resources and time of request, method used to submit the request to the server, size of the file received in reply, numerical code indicating the status of the reply given by the server (successful, error, etc) and other parameters regarding the user’s operating system and computer environment. The data thus collected are anonymous and used only to obtain anonymous statistics concerning the website’s use and to monitor its correct functioning. This type of data is deleted immediately after processing. Data falling into this category may be used to ascertain responsibility in the event of a computer crime damaging the site.

Communication to third parties and categories of recipients (article 13, paragraph 1 GDPR)

Your data may be shared with third parties for the sole purpose stated in the contract. Further processing by third parties requires your free, optional, explicit and voluntary consent. Refusal to provide a third party with your personal data for purposes unrelated to those stated in the contract does not entail termination of the contract.

Privacy Statement Renewal

In the event data should be processed beyond the storage period established, a new statement will be sent describing and specifying the type of data collected, how the data will be processed, duration of data storage and information regarding third parties to whom your data may be transmitted.
